

ACHIEVE THE Outrageous Virtual KEYNOTE

Are you striving to achieve something truly outrageous?
Learn from someone who has been there and done that.

Scott Kress is a masterful storyteller, an author, a leadership and team building expert, a former Executive MBA and EMBA Professor and a life-long adventurer. Scott is the 51st Canadian to summit Mount Everest, and the 18th Canadian to climb the highest peak on each of the 7 continents.

In the pursuit of bigger and bigger goals, Scott and three partners skied unsupported from the coast of Antarctica 960km to the South Pole; one of the most difficult and grueling journeys on earth. Along with this achievement comes Scott's keynote, "Achieve the Outrageous". In this presentation, Scott will share the story of his punishing 44-day expedition across some of the most hostile ground on the planet and punctuate it with learning and application.

Scott's presentation is high energy, passionate, engaging, and most importantly, relevant to the challenges individuals face in reaching outrageous goals. Scott will incorporate polls and other virtual tools to keep the presentation captivating and to help your audience to feel as if they are skiing to the South Pole with Scott and his team.

Achieve the Outrageous is aimed at helping the individual within the team perform at their peak. Any company, leadership team, departmental team or individual seeking to achieve a big goal will benefit from this presentation. Scott will share his insights into goal setting, overcoming adversity, perseverance, and so much more.

VIRTUAL KEYNOTE

I have booked Scott multiple times, he is one of the best presenters I have ever seen. Amazingly engaging story teller within a great business framework. Each time he presents whether it is live or virtual, he has generated conversation among the staff literally for days.
