CONQUERING Everest

Summit's president Scott Kress climbed Everest in a year that presented climbers with more obstacles than ever before. Breath-taking photos and videos will take your team from basecamp to the highest point on the planet. Along the way, they must work together to overcome a series of challenges – no one gets to the top alone. It takes a team.

Survive OR Thrive

Through demanding team challenges, this program will identify key elements that separate teams who simply survive from those who consistently thrive. Add to this an element of Corporate Social Responsibility and you have the makings of a truly meaningful team experience.

THE Juggling ACT

Even if you're not ready to juggle for the circus, learning a new skill always increases your brainpower and a bunch of novice jugglers adds a pretty fun element to the learning process. Picking up a few coaching skills along the way will have you and your team learning a new skill together in a surprisingly short amount of time.

Step Up

Sometimes the best indicator of an organization's success lies beyond the bottom line and can be measured by the impact it has on the community in which it operates. Through a series of competitive challenges, teams will earn and assemble elements of a prosthetic leg destined for one of our global neighbours.

THE Art of Team

Get that creative edge as your team produces a mosaic of collaborative artistic masterpieces. Each team member contributes unique ideas and brushstrokes. This program concludes with a stroll through the interactive Art Gallery that allows members to gain appreciation for the diverse perspectives within the team!

Training & Development Workshops

Summit training workshops start off experientially to demonstrate the exhilaration found in great teamwork, followed by an understanding of how and why it is essential to focus on team performance. Then, using easy to apply tools and strategies, we teach teams how to gain commitment, build trust, communicate effectively and, of course, get results.

EMOTIONAL Intelligence

Much of a person's success is based on their ability to be in touch with, monitor, and effectively manage their responses to a variety of interpersonal interactions. Understanding where we have healthy, under-functioning or even over-functioning qualities in various EI scales is the first step in becoming a more effective leader.

Myers-Briggs® TYPE INDICATOR

Do you have differences that split your team? Do you find that you communicate quite easily with some people and have to make a real effort with others? We all have different personality styles that create these situations. Understanding your personal type and the types of others is critical in driving effective interpersonal interactions.

OVERCOMING FIVE TEAM Dysfunctions

Building an effective team takes commitment and a deliberate, thoughtful approach from everyone involved. This workshop, based on the elegant and simple model described by author Patrick Lencioni provides an excellent framework for developing a high performance team.
